Our list of fees are as follows, these fees are under the current recommended rate set by the Australian Psychological Society (APS). These fees are subject to change and are generally reviewed annually. An out-of-pocket fee, sometimes called a gap fee, is the remaining outstanding cost after your Medicare rebate is applied, should you be eligible. We aim to ensure that financial difficulties do not prevent you from accessing the help that you need. If you have questions or concerns about finances, please speak with our friendly team or your treating professional.
